There are three ways to use Tomenai.net.

1. Accessing Tomenai.net from a PC to view selected files
2. Downloading selected files to a PC and copying them to a tablet for viewing
3. Directly accessing Tomenai.net from a tablet over a Wi-Fi connection to view selected files

Tablets are handy on production floors.

Tomenai.net has been verified to run on the "iPad2" and "New iPads" from Apple Inc.
We recommend using an iPad to access Tomenai.net.

⚠ Update your iOS to 6.0 or later version.
With earlier versions, an ID and password are required every time you move a page or open a file.

⚠ A separate app is required to view PDF and Mpeg4 movies on a tablet that runs on an OS other than iOS, such as Android. See the related information.

⚠ For iCloud and related services, see the explanations provided by Apple.

SHI DEMAG

The URL for the top page is Tomenai.net.
It's more convenient if you create a bookmark for it.
The top half of the page is for general customers,
while the bottom half is for registered customers.

⚠ An ID and password are required to view pages for registered customers.
If interested in registering, contact us.

To directly open a file from your PC, left-click on this icon. To save a file onto your PC, right-click on this icon, select "Save As" (the actual wording will depend on your browser), and save the file in the desired location. With an iPad, tapping opens the file in PDF in Safari. MPEG4 data is played back as video in Safari.

⚠ The apposite application plug-ins are required to view PDF and MPEG4 files on a PC. Check that you have them.

To copy data to your iPad or install PDF viewing apps, install iTunes in your PC.
iTunes is available free of charge from Apple.

⚠ Search for "iTunes" at Apple's download site.

⚠ Data can be copied and apps installed without going through iTunes.
For details, see the explanations provided by Apple.
